OUR WANTS AND NEEDS.

Whoever is the successor of H. F. Cooper in the Department of Public Works, he must not forget, immediately after his appointment that he is due in Hilo. He will find upon consulting the archives of his office that all and every one of his predecessors have visited Hilo and with painful minuteness inquired into the wants and needs of the people. The new Superintendent will be given a welcome equal to that extended to those who have come upon this errand before.

Hilo's needs are exactly the same as they were when the first grand stand inquiry was made some twenty years ago. But the new man must not think he will be excused, should he omit this old fashioned way of proving that Hilo and Hawaii are not forgotten. We like to tell our troubles face to face. The new official would find Front street still crooked; Bridge street still unextended; bridges still condemned to innocuous desuetude, etc., etc. If it were figured out what it has cost the Territory to send officials over to this island to "talk straight with the people and find out their wants and needs," the sum would probably be enough to repair the Volcano Road.

COMPANY D. came out of the competition at Honolulu with a most commendable showing. They were second in drill, only to Company F., the crack Company of the National Guard of Hawaii. They were first in neatness and cleanliness of quarters. The Hilo Company has always been a popular organization in this city and its showing at Honolulu will add to its prestige.

THE assassination of the King and Queen of Serbia does not indicate a revival of medieval civil service methods, so much as it indicates to what depths modern international politics can descend. Put Serbia beyond the sphere of contending influences and her people would govern themselves so well that they would never be heard of.

THERE is no use wasting words on the subject; but the simple truth is that if there are any people on this island who are hungry for entertainment or diversion, they can have their money's worth by coming to Hilo July 4. The man who says there's nothing doing in Hawaii must either come to Hilo or shut up.

THE epidemic of dengue fever in Hilo shows no signs of abatement. The vexatious microbe responsible for this malady is evidently no respecter of persons and plays no favorites. The only thing however to be said in behalf of the dengue species of microbe is that it is seldom fatal.

THE big luau on the Haili church lawn, the presence of the Queen and Hawaii's delegate will be one of the best attractions of Fourth of July week.

THE auction sale of horses by R. W. Jones in Hilo on the morning of July 4, is not intended as a counter attraction to the sod-turning.

THE dry bones, if there are any in Hilo will be soundly shaken up July 4.

Geo. Duncker sometime ago sent samples of Hawaiian beach sand to German makers of hard building brick and tile. By a recent boat Mr. Duncker received a fine many colored piece of floor tile, made from the sand. It is as hard as vitrified brick and the finish is as fine as if made from highest class clays. Mr. Duncker believes he has solved one side of the building material problem and will forward more sand to Germany for further experiment.

The Glorious Fourth.

Fizz!
Boom!
Bang!
I'm the Fourth of July! Born in a Blaze of Glory
I can tell the story,
And not half try,
Of how that Eagle soared,
When the Big Lion roared,
And then with a swoop
And a wild warwhoop,
Come down like a wolf on the fold,
And got a tail hold
On Mr. Lion, and with a twist
Of its clawey fist
It made that animal howl,
Did our noble fowl,
And I can say,
How the Star Spangled Banner
Liberty's grand hoanna,
Long may she wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave,
Swept by sea and land,
As the patriot band
Marched to the rattle
Of muskets in battle;
Or side by side
Shoulder and died,
Oh, I know the things
The Poet sings,
But let me tell
With a whoop and a yell,
How it was when we
Got the victory
That made men free.
Fizz!
Boom!
Bang!
Let everything fly
Sky high
On the Fourth of July!
And, boys,
Fill the whole world with noise;
And wave the flag.
Some few
Don't like the hullabaloo;
But turn it on
At the early dawn,
And let it go
Till the sun is low;
For deep within the howl and baloo
Lies the spirit that pulled us through,
The brave old spirit finding tongue
In the wild huzz as of our manly young,
And growing in strength as the years go by;
That's why
I'm glad I'm the Fourth of July!
And that's what
Will save this nation from going to pot
That's me,
See?
Make room
For the Fizz
Bang,
Boom!
